STUDIES

2024 ASECS Land Acknowledgement

ASECS 2024 acknowledges that we are meeting on the Treaty Lands and Territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit as well as the traditional territories of the Huron-Wendat and Haudenosaunee peoples. We meet within the bounds of the Toronto Purchase Treaty, No.13 agreed upon by the Mississaugas of the Credit and British Crown in 1805. For a useful discussion of this treaty see <https://mncfn.ca/the-toronto-purchase-treaty-no-13-1805/>. Toronto is now home to a diverse range of First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples. We further acknowledge that Canada only exists in its current form due to the continued settler occupation of traditional, unceded, and/or treaty lands of many different Indigenous peoples.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Meeting Location: All sessions and events listed in the program, unless otherwise noted, will take place at the Sheraton Centre Toronto, Ontario. Floorplans of the hotel may be found in the ASECS Annual Meeting app and below.

Registration, Information, and a limited number of masks are available at the ASECS Registration Desk located outside the Provincial Ballroom on the second floor of the hotel. The main program for this year's Annual Meeting is the ASECS 2024 app. A PDF of the program is also available on the Meeting page.

ASECS Membership: The Annual Meeting is sponsored by the Executive Board for the benefit of the Society's membership. Interested persons may join the Society through the webpage or by contacting John Hopkins University Press. Participants whose names appear in the Annual Meeting program must be members of ASECS or of a constituent society of ISECS or official guests of the Society.

Book : The publishers' book exhibit will be open Thursday from 8am to 7:30pm, Friday from 8am to 5pm, and Saturday from 8am to 1pm. A list of participating publishers appears in the front of this program and under the Book Exhibit tab of the Annual Meeting app.

Refund Policy: All cancellations made prior to February 11 will receive a full refund of registration, less a $15 service charge. Refunds will be offered after that date in cases of medical emergency. No-shows will forfeit their registration and fees for optional meals and events.

All-Gender Restrooms: All are welcome to use the restroom that best fits their identity. All-gender restrooms will be available on the second floor.

In case of questions about the Annual Meeting, please contact Devon Binder, Events Manager, at Devon@asecs.org.

HEALTH & SAFETY PROTOCOLS

There will be a limited number of masks at the registration desk. At present, there is no masking requirement, although this could change depending on local conditions. Attendees are encouraged to bring their own masks. Be considerate of others' needs during and beyond the conference, including their caretaking responsibilities at home. If someone asks you to wear a mask, please do so.

If you exhibit symptoms of Covid, influenza, or other infectious diseases, please inform the Executive Director Benita Blessing (director@asecs.org) with the subject line "confidential." The director will not release your name, but she will inform conference attendees via the conference app of possible exposure.

Health and safety updates will be posted on the app as necessary; please make sure that you download the app when it is available.

In the event of a medical or other emergency while in Canada or the United States, dial 9-1-1 (both countries use the same number).

For additional information, please consult the ASECS health and safety policy.

LACTATION ROOM

Leaside will be available throughout session times on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday as the lactation room; the key is available at the registration desk.

QUIET ROOM

Carleton will be available throughout session times on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday as a quiet room.

ACCESSIBILITY GUIDELINES FOR SESSION CHAIRS AND PRESENTERS

ASECS continues to be committed to making arrangements that allow all members of the association to participate in our Annual Meeting. The responsibility for achieving full participation rests with all panel chairs, presenters, and speakers. Session chairs should ensure that panelists make their talks accessible by reminding them in advance of the Society's policies as described below. Session chairs should also ascertain in advance whether panelists themselves have accessibility needs.

Papers, Handouts, and Audiovisuals: Presenters, including roundtable participants, should bring at least two copies of their papers or remarks, with at least one copy in large print (16 or 18 boldface type), even if the text is only in draft or outline form, for the use of members who need to follow a written text. Speakers who use handouts should prepare two to three additional copies in large print and should avoid using colored paper. Handouts should be briefly described orally or read aloud to the audience. Accessibility copies of papers may also be shared in advance through the ASECS 2024 Annual Meeting app, as links or pdf files. To have accessibility copies posted to the app, please contact the ASECS Business Office at asecsoffice@gmail.com. Chairs should collect accessibility copies for distribution at the start of the session, distribute the copies to those who request them, and retrieve them at the session's end. Presenters may mark accessibility copies with "Do Not Circulate/Cite Without Permission" and ask for copies to be returned at the end of the session. If you have made a digital copy of your presentation available, please alert your audience to the availability of the digital version as you begin your talk, and feel free to remove access after your session.

For PowerPoint Presentations: A simple design with minimal text (6 or fewer lines) and the largest possible font is the most accessible. Presenters should describe orally any images on the slides. When referring to a visual aid or handout, or when indicating the location of materials in the room, allow time for audience members to follow this information. Projectors should be turned off when not in use, to reduce background noise.

Room Set-Up: Space has been left for two wheelchairs in each meeting room. Keep this area as well as doorways and aisles clear for persons who may be using wheelchairs, canes, crutches, or motorized vehicles. In addition to the table for the panelists, all rooms will have at least one table at the front of the room to provide a writing surface for audience members.

Communication and Presentation: Microphones and speakers will be available in 5 rooms: Birchwood, City Hall, Davenport, Huron, and Kent. Speak clearly and distinctly but do not shout. Speakers should repeat questions or statements made by audience members. Session chairs should ensure that only one person speaks at a time. In discussions, speakers should identify themselves so that audience members know who is speaking.

Accessibility Copies: Please provide a link to your paper, PowerPoint, or other document if you would like it uploaded to the app to the Accessibilities Copies Form. If you are submitting this form for someone else, please fill in their information completely. Please use one form per person presenting.

Many presenters find it practical to include a link to a shared document (Google, OneDrive, etc.) now with a "content coming soon" note on it, allowing them to make updates to the file up until the session starts. It is also possible to cut access to the documents after the session is over if you are concerned about inappropriate distribution. All links and documents provided by Monday, April 1, 2024 are guaranteed to be available on the app.

OMBUDS

ASECS's members have access to an Ombuds. An Ombuds is an independent, neutral person trained in conflict resolution. Kathleen Canul is available throughout the year via email (ombuds@asecs.org), video conference, and phone (949) 293-7515, and will hold virtual office hours at the 54th Annual Meeting. Contact Kathy to meet during the following times, or to schedule an appointment. Information is available on the ASECS Ombuds page.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday Hours:

9-11am EDT

noon-1pm EDT

4-6pm EDT

ANTI-HARASSMENT COMMITTEE

ASECS members may contact any member of the anti-harassment committee throughout the year: antiharassment@asecs.org. Members of the committee will be available during the 54th Annual Meeting.

- Chair: Susan Lanser, Brandeis University
- Julia Fawcett (regular), University of California – Berkeley
- Corinne Harol, English (regular)
- David Alf, English (alternate), University of Buffalo
- Luis Ramos (alternate), New York University

CALL FOR PAPERS

Studies in Eighteenth-Century Culture, Volume 55

Studies in Eighteenth-Century Culture is an interdisciplinary peer-reviewed journal published annually for the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies (ASECS) by the Johns Hopkins University Press. SECC publishes revised versions of papers and roundtable remarks presented in any public venue in the previous two years by a member of ASECS or of a learned society affiliated with ASECS or ISECS. This includes papers given virtually or online. Digitized as part of Project Muse, SECC is a membership benefit of Patrons and Sponsoring Members of ASECS and is offered to all members at a discount.

For our next volume, Volume 55, the editors invite provocative and rigorous essays that chart out new directions for research on the cultures of the long eighteenth century, including contributions to history, literary history, the history of visual art, theatre and performance studies, musicology, material culture studies, gender and sexuality studies, and the studies of race, indigeneity, and empire. Essays from under-represented areas of inquiry are particularly welcome.

The editors are committed to publishing not only individual essays, but also one or more “clusters” of contributions that stem from the same panel or roundtable (or, in the case of double or triple sessions on a shared topic, the same series of panels or roundtables). If you are a session chair interested in pursuing this option, please contact the editors soon after your conference or other public event has concluded in order to confirm that your cluster is of an appropriate scope and to determine the best length for the individual contributions.

Guidelines for Submission to Volume 55: Revised versions of papers and roundtable remarks presented in any public venue by a member of ASECS or of a learned society affiliated with ASECS or ISECS between JULY 1, 2023 and JUNE 30, 2024 are eligible for consideration. Single essay submissions are typically between 5,000 and 10,000 words in length, including notes, although we will consider substantively revised contributions of other lengths. Submissions are normally in English and should follow the 17th edition of The Chicago Manual of Style. Submissions will be evaluated through blind peer review. Authors are therefore asked to avoid identifying themselves, and references to one’s own scholarship should be made in the third person. We cannot consider papers already submitted to other journals. The deadline for submission is AUGUST 15, 2024. Please send all inquiries and submissions to David Brewer <brewer.126@osu.edu> and Crystal Lake <lake.crystal@gmail.com>.

CREATE A CULTURE OF DISCOVERY

WANT TO INTEGRATE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY COLLECTIONS ONLINE INTO YOUR INSTRUCTION?

How can you make your campus a hub of discovery? Give more researchers the skills they need to explore primary sources that share unique insights into the historical events that shape the present day.

Bring primary sources into the classroom to enhance instruction and help students learn digital literacy with Learning Centers in Gale Primary Sources. Discover how easy it is to guide new and experienced users through digital archives and spark inspiration for research journeys at the Gale table at ASECS or at gale.com/teach-primary-sources.

Start using Learning Centers today in Eighteenth Century Collections Online (ECCO), available through your ASECS membership at asecs.org/ecco.

THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY FOR EIGHTEENTH-CENTURY STUDIES (ISECS)

ASECS is a member of ISECS, an umbrella organization comprising 33 eighteenth-century societies from around the world. ISECS was founded to promote the growth, development and coordination of studies and research relating to the eighteenth century in all aspects of its cultural heritage (historical, philosophical, ideological, religious, linguistic, literary, scientific, artistic, juridical) in all countries, without exception.

Every four years, ISECS holds an International Congress on the Enlightenment. The next International Congress will take place in Rome in 2023. ISECS also hosts an annual International Seminar for Early Career Eighteenth-Century Scholars. ASECS members are eligible to submit proposals to participate in the Congress and apply to participate in the Seminar.
