

Call for Proposals

Submission Group 2025 Submissions
You'll see the submitter information, including the abstract, on the left side.

Submission Subgroup - please select the type of submission (note that session submissions have now closed; we are currently accepting individual submissions to sessions)
Individual Submissions to Sessions (choose session on next screen)

Notes for submitting an abstract to a session:

1. Panels, Poster Sessions, Roundtables, and Special Sessions are listed separately.
2. You may submit an abstract for up to 2 sessions; you must inform the chair of each session that you have done so.
3. Please submit a new form for each abstract you submit. Please only submit to 1 panel or 1 to poster session or to 1 roundtable or to 1 special session per form.
Thank you!

Panels: If you are applying to a panel, please select it here.

000 TEST FOR TESTING PURPOSES ONLY - DO NOT USE

Poster Session: If you are applying to a poster session, please select it here.

Roundtable: If you are applying to a roundtable, please select it here.

Special Session: If you are applying to a special session, please select it here. Note that some Special Sessions are not listed here; they are pre-formed sessions. See the List of Sessions for further information.

Submission Title

Best Paper for Testing

Abstract instructions: Abstracts should be 450-250 words. Check with the session chair if you have any questions (emails are listed in the List of Sessions).

To avoid the portal timing out, please copy/paste your abstract from another document.

Feel free to include any additional information, suggestions, and questions for the Chair or for the Program Committee in the Notes below.

Abstract

Test abstract

Session Roles Section Instructions:

1. If you are submitting a presentation for the session, the applicant type should say "presenting in session". Click on the name to change that role, if needed.

Call for Proposals

Conflict of Interest * 2

No Yes

You may add any comments the Meeting.

You'll see the area for you to make notes on the right side. You don't have to score anything or write notes if you don't find it helpful.

If you don't want to write anything

Submitters cannot see your ranking or your notes (nor can any co-chairs). Although conference administrators can see this information, please email them directly.

Suggestions for criteria:

- Important contribution to the field
- In dialogue with motivating questions of the field
- Interdisciplinary, or underrepresented discipline/field
- Appropriateness of methodology
- Works well with other submissions
- Etc.

If this submission might be considered with revisions, you can indicate desired changes for your records.

If this submission is inappropriate for this year's Annual Meeting, you may briefly note why for your records.

Review notes (optional) - write n/a if you don't want to add anything * 2 test

You must select a score. It cannot be seen by the abstract's author.

1 = Reject

2 = Revisions suggested for reconsideration OR Problems with submission (incomplete, etc.) OR Unsure OR Waitlisted (should a spot become available)

3 = Accept

Click "save and continue later." This way you will be able to return and edit your review (you'll see a pencil icon in the top right corner the next time you look at it).

If you click "save and submit," you will not be able to edit it. If you make a mistake, please contact Benita Blessing (director@asecs.org) for help.

Score - not visible to abstract author * 2

1

2

3